

The AU Way: Our core priorities

Access like no other

AU truly opens doors to new learners, from busy professionals to first-in-family learners, to people with disabilities.

Success indicators

- A world-class university experience for every learner
- Removing barriers
- Indigenous inclusion
- Technology for access

Opportunity like no other

AU provides opportunity, especially for those traditionally excluded from universities.

Success indicators

- The university for everyone
- Borderless and boundless
- Responding to needs
- Active, ambitious, and inclusive research culture

Community like no other

AU empowers learners to live, work, and study where and how they want.

Success indicators

- Growing community
- Strategic partnerships
- Lifelong connection

Supporting the AU Way: Integrative priorities

Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI)

Strategies and initiatives around EDI must be integrated systematically in key university processes and decisions.

Success indicators

- EDI in action
- EDI capacity-building
- EDI in the community

A better and more equitable world

Dr. Alex Clark
President

“At AU, we have the courage to be different from other universities. We seek to improve the lives of learners and communities through our teaching, research, and impact from local to global, in place and in digital space—in the most meaningful ways: to make the work better and more equitable.”
