Overview

Nursing 401: Professional Practice with Adults Experiencing Health Alterations is a 6-credit paced study online course with a clinical practicum component. The course is paced over 14 weeks and includes 8 learning units including a 4-week clinical practicum. The course gives you the opportunity to integrate and apply concepts from prior learning in anatomy, physiology, pathophysiology, pharmacology, and the theoretical concepts of NURS 400, in the provision of nursing care for adults experiencing acute and/or chronic alterations in health. The NURS 401 clinical practicum is based on nursing competencies as outlined in the College & Association of Registered Nurses of Alberta: Entry-level Competencies for the Practicing Registered Nurse.

Outline

- Unit 1: 4-Week Clinical Practicum
- Unit 2: Nursing Theory Application
- Unit 3: Delivering Culturally Competent Care
- Unit 4: Comprehensive Assessment
- Unit 5: Evidence-Based Nursing Care
- Unit 6: Understanding Adverse Events
- Unit 7: Interprofessional Collaboration
- Unit 8: NCLEX-RN Preparation

Learning outcomes

Upon completion of NURS 401, the student will achieve the following learning outcomes:

- demonstrate the ability to integrate nursing theory, primary health care principles, and health promotion strategies in the care of adults with health alterations
- demonstrate cultural competence in the delivery of nursing care.
- Demonstrate professional nursing behaviour by practicing safely, using evidence-based practice, clinical judgement, critical thinking, and innovation
- adhere to legal and ethical standards in nursing practice by incorporating the clients' values, beliefs, and rights within the mandate and the role of the profession, namely the College and Association of Registered Nurses of Alberta (CARNA) Nursing Practice Standards and the Canadian Nurses Association (CNA) Code of Ethics

Evaluation

NURS 401 is graded on a pass/fail basis. To receive credit ↗ for NURS 401, all clinical practice and evaluation assessment criteria requirements must be successfully completed. All papers submitted must follow the guidelines of the APA Publication Manual (6th ed.) (2010). The required assignments are as follows:
